Pinemarten Coffee shop

The Pinemarten

Leanachan forest surrounding Nevis Range is home to the Pinemarten. A mainly nocturnal creature, the Pinemarten is found in northern Scotland particularly along the Great Glen. They can be identified by their chocolate coloured coat and creamy throat patch. The Pinemarten feeds on small birds and mammals and sleeps in dens commonly found in cairns, crags, scree & holes in trees. Pinemartens are a common sight around the Nevis Range gondola base station, and they have been known to use the gondola top station for shelter during the winter months.
